Celebrate T.R.'s Birthday and the NPS Centennial!

Saturday, October 29, 2016

Celebrate Theodore Roosevelt's 158th birthday and the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service. To commemorate these events and the reopening of Roosevelt's boyhood home, the National Park Service is conducting a day-long celebration in a block-party setting where East 20th Street will be open to pedestrians and closed to vehicular traffic.

The event will feature tours, booths from Roosevelt-related organizations, distinguished speakers, T.R.-era music played on a 1905 Wurlitzer organ, kids activities and giveaways, face painting, a Roosevelt-themed photo booth, 'Rough Riders' reenactors, T.R. reenactor Joe Wiegand (programs at 11:00 am and 3:00 pm in the auditorium), a musical/spoken word performance by 'Chance' (program at 1:00 pm in the auditorium), and more.

So, join us to celebrate and take part in the festivities.

Admission is free!
